PROFESSIONAL PLACEMENT GUIDELINES VICTORIA

1. PURPOSE

These Professional Placement Guidelines set out the respective roles, rights and responsibilities of all parties involved in the Professional Placement (the “Placement”) component of the Leo Cussen Practical Legal Training course (“PLT”).

Those parties are:

- a) the Trainee;
- b) the Placement Supervisor; and
- c) Leo Cussen Centre for Law (“Leo Cussen”).

2. OVERVIEW OF PROFESSIONAL PLACEMENT

The Placement is a 105-hour (15-day) supervised work placement which forms a component of the PLT. Trainees must successfully complete the Placement in order to complete the PLT and to be eligible to apply for admission to the legal profession.

The purpose of the Placement is to provide the Trainee with an opportunity to:

- a) apply, test and reflect on what has been learned during the PLT in a practical, ‘real-world’ environment;
- b) receive experienced supervision by a qualified member of the legal profession in the execution of legal or law-related work;
- c) interact with various stakeholders including lawyers, government officers, clients and other staff;
- d) develop an understanding of the nature of legal practice, and the Trainee’s aptitude for engaging in it;
- e) acquire a basic understanding of what a legal practitioner does in the course of legal practice; and
- f) critically reflect upon their experience during the Placement, and consider how that experience will influence the Trainee’s future actions.

REMUNERATION

- a) Supervisors are not required to remunerate Trainees for the duration of the Placement, in accordance with the 'Vocational Placement Exception' in the Fair Work Act 2009.

SUPERVISION REQUIREMENTS

- a) Supervisors must ensure Trainees are supervised by a person who:
- a. is admitted to the legal profession; and
  - b. holds a current practising certificate; and
  - c. is currently practising law; and
  - d. has at least three years of post-admission experience practising law.
- b) Alternatively, a Supervisor may be a judge or magistrate of an Australian court, or member of an Australian tribunal.
- c) Upon request from Leo Cussen, Supervisors may be required to provide evidence of their qualifications, admission to practice, or practising certificate.
- d) Trainees must be provided with ongoing guidance and constructive feedback on their work.
- e) Supervisors may share supervision in conjunction with other staff who qualify as Placement Supervisors under these Professional Placement Guidelines.

SUITABLE TASKS AND ACTIVITIES

- a) Supervisors must ensure Trainees receive appropriate legal or law-related work that allows the Trainee to apply, test and reflect on skills being learned during the PLT course. Appropriate legal or law-related work must include most or all of the following:

- significant interaction with external or in-house clients;
- drafting documents;
- legal research;
- using a file management system.

Some more specific examples of suitable activities include, but are not limited to:

- attending interviews with clients and conducting interviews in minor matters
- reviewing documents, including contracts, court documents, agreements, wills etc.
- observation of, or involvement in, office procedures
- liaising with internal and/or external clients or stakeholders
- arranging, preparing for and attending settlements
- attending conferences, mediations, court hearings, or other dispute resolution forums
- drafting documents of a straightforward nature (eg Transfers, Probate Applications, simple Wills, Affidavits of Documents, etc)
- drafting letters and other correspondence
- conducting legal research and drafting memoranda of advice
- discussing issues with Placement Supervisor, eg after reading a file

- b) Supervisors must:

- a. avoid or limit the allocation of administrative and/or non-legal tasks to the Trainee;
- b. ensure that, wherever possible, Trainees are allocated a variety of experiences and activities;
- c. provide, wherever possible, a constant flow of work to the Trainee; and
- d. provide Trainees with ongoing guidance and constructive feedback on their work.

AT CONCLUSION OF PLACEMENT

Supervisors are asked to ensure that they:

- a) conduct an 'exit interview' with the Trainee at the conclusion of the Placement to reflect on the experience and discuss overall feedback.
- b) complete a Supervisor Feedback Form and submit it to Leo Cussen by no later than the next business day after Placement completion.
- c) are aware that any subsequent arrangement to keep the Trainee on after completion of the Placement would be regarded as a separate employment contract/arrangement between the Placement organisation and the Trainee. Leo Cussen would not be a party to any such arrangement.
- d) provide their own insurance for any subsequent arrangements made with the Trainee following completion of the Placement. Leo Cussen provides Civil Liability, Professional Indemnity and Personal Accident insurance for the duration of the Placement period only.

SUPPORT AND ASSISTANCE

- a) Placement Supervisors may seek support and assistance from Leo Cussen in relation to the Placement for matters including:
  - further guidance on the Placement Supervisor's rights and responsibilities;
  - further guidance on acceptable and recommended activities to allocate to the Trainee;
  - any concerns with the Trainee, including options for dealing with unacceptable or inappropriate behaviour.

Such support can be sought, in the first instance, by contacting the Graduate Placement & Careers Advisor on 9641 7140 or agiannopoulos@leocussen.edu.au.

4. THE TRAINEE: Roles, Rights & Responsibilities

PRIOR TO PLACEMENT COMMENCEMENT

- a) Trainees must read and comply with the Placement Rules & Procedures Manual (available via the Online Learning Environment).
- b) Online Trainees must source their own Placement and must seek approval from Leo Cussen prior to commencing the Placement by submitting a Placement Arrangement Form (available via the Online Learning Environment).
- c) Onsite Trainees may choose between having a Placement allocated to them by Leo Cussen, or sourcing their own Placement (subject to approval by Leo Cussen).
- d) All Trainees must contact the Placement Supervisor (or other designated contact person) prior to Placement commencement in order to confirm arrangements for the first day.

CONDUCT DURING PLACEMENT

- a) Trainees are expected to demonstrate appropriate professional behaviour during Placement, including:
  - maintaining the confidentiality of the organisation and its clients/other stakeholders
  - Being punctual
  - Following instructions and diligently carrying out assigned tasks
  - Dressing professionally and behaving with courtesy and respect
  - Refraining from texting/taking private calls
  - complying with the reasonable office hours of the Placement organisation, even if this results in the completion of additional hours
- b) Trainees are also expected to take a level of responsibility for their own Placement, and proactively seek-out tasks and feedback from staff.
- c) In the first instance, Trainees should make all reasonable efforts to resolve any concerns while on Placement directly with the Placement Supervisor.

PLACEMENT DURATION AND ATTENDANCE

- a) Trainees must ensure they complete a minimum of 105 hours of work experience on Placement. Trainees must ensure that they carry out at least one day (or two half-days) of work experience per week during the Placement period.
- b) Online Trainees must ensure the Placement is scheduled to commence no earlier than the date you accept a place offered to you in the course, and completed no later than three weeks from the end of the final intensive.
- c) Onsite Trainees must ensure that all 15 days of Placement are attended, even if this results in the completion of additional hours.
- d) Trainees must comply with the reasonable office hours of the Placement organisation, even if this results in the completion of additional hours.
- e) Trainees must keep a record of Placement hours and activities undertaken, and produce that record to Leo Cussen upon request.
- f) Trainees must promptly inform the Placement Supervisor if they are unable to attend a scheduled Placement day due to illness or other extenuating circumstances. The Trainee must also make alternative arrangements with the Placement Supervisor to complete the lost hours. In addition, onsite Trainees are required to immediately contact the Graduate Placement & Careers Advisor to discuss further arrangements.
- g) If requested by Leo Cussen, Trainees must produce a Certificate of Sickness for any Placement days missed due to illness.
- h) If extenuating circumstances prevent completion of the Placement by the deadline, Trainees must submit a Placement Extension Request Form, approval of which is at the discretion of Leo Cussen.

AT CONCLUSION OF PLACEMENT

Trainees are asked to ensure that:

- a) they carry out an 'exit interview' with the Placement Supervisor at the conclusion of the Placement to reflect on the experience and discuss overall feedback.
- b) Leo Cussen receives both a Trainee Feedback Form (available via the Online Learning Environment) and Supervisor Feedback Form (which Leo Cussen sends directly to the Supervisor) by no later than the next business day after Placement completion.

SUPPORT AND ASSISTANCE

- a) Trainees may seek support and assistance from Leo Cussen in relation to the Placement for matters including:
- further guidance on the Trainee's rights and responsibilities
  - any concerns with the Placement Supervisor or other staff, including options for dealing with unacceptable or inappropriate behaviour
  - insufficient or inappropriate allocation of tasks/activities
  - ethical dilemmas
  - concerns regarding feedback from the Placement Supervisor
  - in relation to online Trainees, advice on sourcing a Placement where the Trainee is experiencing difficulty.

Such support can be sought, in the first instance, by contacting the Graduate Placement & Careers Advisor on 9641 7140 or agiannopoulos@leocussen.edu.au.
